6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question: 6.1

The purpose of this section is to give you an opportunity to tell us and your community about the activities you have engaged in to address community needs by outlining key services provided, and the local value and impact of those services. Please report on activities that occurred in Fiscal Year 2016. Responses may be shared with Congress or the public. Grantees are required to post a copy of this report (Section 6 only) to their website no later than ten (10) days after the submission of the report to CPB. CPB recommends placing the report in an "About" or similar section on your website. This section had previously been optional. Response to this section of the SAS is now mandatory.

Joint licensee Grantees that have filed a 2016 Local Content and Services Report as part of meeting the requirement for TV CSG funding may state they have done so in the corresponding questions below, so long as all of the questions below were addressed as they relate to radio operations in such report. You must include the date the report was submitted to CPB along with the TV Grantee ID under which it was submitted.

Jump to question: 6.1

1. Describe your overall goals and approach to address identified community issues, needs, and interests through your station's vital local services, such as multiplatform long and short-form content, digital and in-person engagement, education services, community information, partnership support, and other activities, and audiences you reached or new audiences you engaged.

Classical music Radio station KBAQ, Phoenix supports and partners with local institutions and artists as well as its community and governments. The stations activities include maintaining a comprehensive calendar of arts events, and producing features for broadcast and streaming and using social media to highlight and engage with the entire community. These efforts have taken the mission of KBAQ and the arts to individuals young and old and to native and transplanted populations

2. Describe key initiatives and the variety of partners with whom you collaborated, including other public media outlets, community nonprofits, government agencies, educational institutions, the business community, teachers and parents, etc. This will illustrate the many ways you're connected across the community and engaged with other important organizations in the area.

KBAQ continues an ongoing dialogue among arts presenters, performers, venues, educational entities and arts advocates. A few of the stations most recent partners have included The Phoenix Symphony, the North Valley Symphony Orchestra, Phoenix Choral, Arizona Opera, Rosie's House, the Harmony Project - a non-profit organization that engages, challenges and mentors under-resourced children through music, Scottsdale Center for the Arts, Mesa Arts Center and the Phoenix "World Bazaar" a celebration of the cultures of refugees who have made a home in Phoenix.

3. What impact did your key initiatives and partnerships have in your community? Describe any known measurable impact, such as increased awareness, learning or understanding about particular issues. Describe indicators of success, such as connecting people to needed resources or strengthening conversational ties across diverse neighborhoods. Did a partner see an increase in requests for related resources? Please include direct feedback from a partner(s) or from a person(s) served.

KBAQ continues to be seen as the primary source of information about culture and the arts in Metropolitan Phoenix. Attendance at programs and awareness of cultural initiatives through direct participation, reporting, programming and social media keeps KBAQ in high demand by entities throughout the valley and state.

4. Please describe any efforts (e.g. programming, production, engagement activities) you have made to investigate and/or meet the needs of minority and other diverse audiences (including, but not limited to, new immigrants, people for whom English is a second language and illiterate adults) during Fiscal Year 2016, and any plans you have made to meet the needs of these audiences during Fiscal Year 2017. If you regularly broadcast in a language other than English, please note the language broadcast.

KBAQ's engagement with diverse audiences in calendar 2016 have included the national director of the the Harmony Project - a non-profit organization that engages, challenges and mentors under-resourced children through music; Rosie's House - to give the under served youth of greater Phoenix the gift of music education by providing instruments and free instruction; the Phoenix "World Bazaar" a celebration of the cultures of refugees who have made a home in Phoenix; We also featured and supported on air and through social networking local artists like The Tandem Duo who introduced valley audiences to Japanese composer Kohei Kondo with the Kondo Festival.

5. Please assess the impact that your CPB funding had on your ability to serve your community. What were you able to do with your grant that you wouldn't be able to do if you didn't receive it?

Without CPB funding, KBAQ would not be able to sustain the outreach and community engagement that we do to serve the arts community in the Greater Phoenix area.

7.1 Journalists

Jump to question: 7.1

This section builds on the Census of Journalists conducted by CPB in the summer of 2010. These positions are the primary professional full-time, part-time or contract contributors to local journalism at your organization. The individuals in these positions will have had training in the standards and practices of fact-based news origination, verification, production and presentation. These are generally accepted titles for these positions but may not match position descriptions at your organization exactly. Please do your best to account for each professional journalist in your organization. Please do not count student or volunteer journalists.
